From recent and more complete accounts of the Abbott-Everhard go, at New Orleans, it appears that a more deliberate robbery was committed in the decision rendered than even that in the McAuliffe-Griffo fight. The local boxer is said to have fouled and used unfair and unpuglistic tactics throughout the twelfth round until Abbott was declared "out," although the latter was on his feet at the time. Abbott protested, but the referee was deaf to all appeals, even while the spectators thungered at him to pull Everhard out of the ring. nature, of course, he declined to divide.

The Republican Club at Rhinebeck of which George Esselstyn is President, made a trip to Ellersile on Tuesday night for the purpose of serenading the ex-Vice-President. A walk of two miles over the dusty roads leading to Mr. Morton's mansion served to make the delegation rather uncomfortable. But the delegation's discomfort was increased tenfold when, on reaching the house, they were told that Mr. Morton had left for New York City early that morning.

In the absence of any definite statement from Levi P. Morton, ex-Benator Platt was asked this morning if he could enlighten the public as to whether Mr. Morton would accept the Republican nomination for Governor. Mr. Platt was the last stateman who talked to Mr. Morton before his departure for Rhinebeck.

"I know nothing in addition to what I have already said," replied Mr. Platt referring to his interview in which he stated that Mr. Morton was favorably inclined.

"How about second place on the State licket." Mr. Platt was asked:
"I don't know anything about it. That's a free-for-all race," he answered. At the office of Morton, Bliss & Co. ### BASEBALL CHAT.

With another victory snatched from the Clevelands to-day the Giants will again have tallied their eleventh straight win and equalled their former record, which is the best in the number straight victories scored this season. The game yesterday was a hard one for Cleveland to lose. Tebeau and his "Tartars" gave the Giants about all hey could do to win out, and McGarr's othre-tinted muff of Burke's foul and Eddie's timely and magnificent hit mmediately after, in the eighth inning, 'cinched" the game for New York. Nothing seems to stand in the way of the Giants securing to-day's game. Sullivan is said to be stated to pitch for Cleveland. He is the big twirler recently released by Washington, and New York never had any trouble in pounding him very generously. German will be in the box for the Giants, and Lester's slow drons ought to be extremely.

Preparations are making for an enormous attendance at the Polo Grounds to-morrow. The game will be called at 3.45, and all that is prayed for is "no rain" Rusie will probably pitch for New York, as against Nichols.

To-morrow will see the game of the year. Boston and New York will play off that memorable tie game, 13 to 13. A victory for the Giants means everything. In the first place it would hauf the Bostons out of first place it would hauf the Bostons out of first place (provided of course, the three leading teams hold the same relative positions after this afternoon's games) and push the Orioles into the van by the narrow margin of three points. New York would then be third but six points behind Hoston. Miss Werner came to court this morn-Miss Werner came to court this morning to withdraw the complaint against Herstchman. He was also in court, and, seeing a dozen or more prospective complainants in court, he steeped out again. Court Officer Brady arrested him at the court door on a warrant sworn out by Abraham Levine, of 229 Madison street. Levine said that Herstchman sold him a ticket with which a relative of his was to come from Berlin. The relative in Germany never received the ticket.

Herstchman was arraigned on the new charge and held for examination.

In the front seats of the court-room sat men and women from the lower east side, who say they are victims of Herstchman's dishonesty. As the Justice could entertain but one complaint at a time these people had to content themselves with glaring flercely at the prisoner as he was led to and from the bar.

The alleged victims are Julius Lipsitz, of 282 Cherry street, who said he lost $62; Hersch Spector, of 126 Henry street, $12; J. Guteman, of 70 East Broadway, $32.40; Morris Rudemann, 97 Monroe street, $15.55; Ascher Friedheim, 25 Madison street, $28, and Lena Finkelstein, of 101 East Broadway.

FAT MEN HAVE AN OUTING.

Annual Dinner and Games Held at Roton Point.

President Munson, of This City, Gets a Clam-Eating Medal.

SOUTH NORWALK, Conn., Aug. 30 .-Prominent citizens physically, as well as from numerous other causes, from New York and Connecticut are having a glorious time to-day at Roton Point. They are members of the famous Fat Men's Association, who have assembled here for their twenty-eighth annual reunion, athletic contests and clambake. Secretary Patrick Murphy, of Sauga-

Secretary Patrick Murphy, of Saugatuck, was as usual the first to arrive. He drove down from South Norwalk on an eight-horse truck, followed later by Judge David B. Lockwood, of Bridgebort, who floated down on a great raft. Others reached the point on barges, stone-boats and express wagons.

Charles E. Munson, who conducts a New York hostelry, was re-elected President for the third consecutive time, and Secretary Murphy accepted an invitation to serve during another term. After a sumptuous banquet the jolly heavy-weights had a war dance and pow-wow. President Munson was given an international medal for distancing all others in devouring clams.

Andrew W. Wallace, a New York manufacturer, whose avoirdupois will not fall much short of 400 pounds, gave an exhibition of graceful skirt dancing and the Highland fling, and Datei (Perkins, a Waterbury feather-weight of 300 pounds or thereabouts, won a prizepig by difficult feats on a horizontal bar.

pig by diment feats on a horizontal bar.

Secretary Murphy made the best leap with a vaulting pole, and br. Joseph Fanyow, of New York, a 230-pound infant, won applause in butting the wind out of President Munson, and then turning a flip-flap over him before men with a derrick could hoist him on his feet.

Henry T. Fields, formerly an Albany lumber merchant, with a breadth almost equal to his helpit, was victorious in a greased pole contest, and Senator George M. Cole, of Bethel, won the 199-yard dash.

A walk of two miles over the dusty roads leading to Mr. Morton's mansion served to make the delegation rather uncomfortable. But the delegation's discomfort was increased tenfold when, on reaching the house, they were told that Mr. Morton had left for New York City early that morning.

There was nothing to do but to walk home again, and Mr. Esselstyn is being quietly guyed to-day for his absence of forethought in not making sure that the serenadee was at home before the procession started.
